

SWAR02-Syllabus

Sociology as a science and as an interpretative discipline; impact of Industrial and French Revolution on the emergence of sociology; sociology and its relationship with history, economics, political science, psychology and anthropology Problem of objectivity and value neutrality; issue of measurement in social science; elements of scientific method-concepts, theory and fact, hypothesis; research designs- descriptive, exploratory and experimental, content analysis. Participant and quasi-participant observation; interview, questionnaire and schedule case study, sampling-size, reliability and validity, scaling techniques-social distance and Likert scale

Question	Marks Allotted	Word Limit	Time Limit (in minutes)
1. Discuss the emergence of Sociology briefly and its relation with other branches of humanities.	60	600-750	40-45
2. Explain the following: - a) Reliability and Validity b) Scaling techniques-social distance and Likert scale c) Questionnaire and schedule case study d) Research Design e) Qualitative and Quantitative Method	100 (Each Question carrying 20 marks)	1000-1200 (Each question to be answered in 200-250 words)	60-80